Meditation

Where Two or Three Are Gathered

In one congregation I served, summertime was the catalyst for many of our members to hook up their camper trailers and head to northern Michigan for a weekend at a beautiful campground. In an effort to minister to these "weekenders," I floated the idea of offering a Monday night worship service for the returning campers.

One hot July evening, only one man showed up. As I visited with him and glanced anxiously at my watch, it became obvious there would be only three of us: the organist, the lone worshiper, and I. Finally, I went ahead with a shortened version of the service. I know my heart was not in it because I was inwardly pouting over my disappointment. I wonder what memories the "lone worshiper" has of that service. I know that I will never forget it! The "martyr complex" I felt that night is symbolic of other times in my ministry when I was really into the numbers game and became quite discouraged when the turnout at a meeting or special service was smaller than anticipated. On those occasions, the words of Jesus, "where two or three are gathered together in my name, I am there among them" were far from my thoughts.

And yet, in reflection, some of the most moving times in my ministry have come when only two or three of us were gathered together in Christ's name.

One such incident comes to mind from my early years as a pastor. I was asked to call on a member of the congregation who had been a patient in a mental hospital for many years. It was a 40-mile trip to the hospital, so I brought along my private communion set with the goal of sharing the sacrament with him on this visit. After I met Louie, I did my best to spark some kind of conversation with him. Since Louie had been a farmer, I used my own farm background to weave in comments and questions that I thought just might interest him. Nothing! Louie seemed to be off in his own little world, mumbling some unintelligible words and occasionally looking at me with a blank stare.

So, I moved on to plan B. I said: "Louie, I would like to share Holy Communion with you." To my surprise, he quieted and then folded his hands. So, there we were, just the two of us, in this stark hospital room. I prepared the bread and wine and then shared God's word and offered a prayer. Then I said to him: "Louie, let's pray together the Lord's Prayer." The memory is as vivid as if it were yesterday. As I began to pray, I could hear Louie's clear voice praying the Lord's Prayer with me. He didn't miss a word! Surely the presence of the Lord was in that place.

I learned something in a congregation I served where consistently there were over 500 people at the worship service. In a follow up to visitors I often heard the comment: "You certainly serve a friendly congregation." Of course, I was pleased to hear that and then would ask: "Why do you say that?" "Oh, people talked with us and smiled at us and welcomed us." My response: "How many people would you say did that?" Their response: "Oh, I suppose there were at least five different people who spoke to us."

Think about it: hundreds of people did not even know of their presence. But, because a small group of people took the time to welcome them, they concluded that this was a friendly congregation. The impact that a few people can have on a congregation is powerful. Never discount that! Never sell yourself short.

It doesn't matter whether the group is large or small, right? Through the centuries, Jesus reassures us: "Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them."

This morning we have the privilege to worship God at His fellowship table: to sit together as family in the Lord, with and despite our weaknesses, secured in the blood of the Lamb, Jesus Christ. The Lord's Supper is a sign and seal of the faithfulness of God in the gospel: combined with the preaching of the Word through which we hear of our salvation; it allows us to use our eyes and see the bread broken and the wine poured out as symbols of Jesus' sacrifice in our place; to reach out with our hands and take from the Lord the wonder of His grace, and in eating taste and see that the Lord is good!

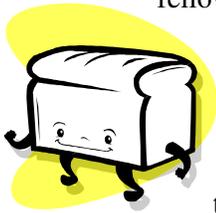

In this God strengthens our faith in ways we do not understand, yet ways that are real!

Through it we are pointed back to Jesus as our source of salvation, as our friend through the life of salvation, and as our secure hope for the future eternity in heavenly perfection. This privilege is one we do not take lightly, and therefore any quests or visitors who are with us this morning and would like to join us at the table are asked to speak to an elder prior to the service.

The Lord's Supper table also reminds us that we are one in the Lord: and in this unity we bring each other to God in prayer for our various needs and thanksgiving.

There are those who continue to struggle with weakness and ill-health: Riet Kik, Arie van der Linden, Els Baayens, Dini Stroop, Yvonne Herft, Nel Schneider, as well as our other elderly members.

I hope those who attended the Gosnells Family Camp last weekend had a good time of fellowship and encouragement.

BREAD!!!: Each Tuesday evening we are able to obtain bread from one of our local Baker's Delight, for distribution amongst the congregation and through the community. This bread will be available at the church on Wednesday mornings at 9:30 am to collect. If you want some bread or know of someone in your street or neighbourhood who would appreciate some, do come along or pass on this information to others. For more information contact Reinier or Trudy.

Spirit of Christmas Celebrations: yes, I know it is only October, but the Town of Victoria Park Christmas celebrations will soon be with us!

This year it is planned for Sunday 30th November, from 4pm to 8 pm. We again plan to hand out bags, as well as have a colouring table for children. This year we also would like to try a small craft, as well as face painting but need someone with some artistic talent to coordinate this.

If you are able to help on the day, assist with the craft, or maybe do some face painting, please speak to Trudy or Reinier as soon as possible.

Announcements

- This morning the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated. We remind visitors that in this part of God's family we believe the elders ought to guard the sacred things of God. This means that along with our own members we invite to the Lord's Table those who make themselves known to our elders as Christian people sharing a common faith with us.
- Canning Bible Study will meet this Tuesday at the home of Reinier and Trudy Noppers. We will start a new study, working our way through the prophecies of Isaiah. If you are not part of a Bible study, or would simply like to come and have some good fellowship as we dig into God's Word together, why not come along and join us! We start around 7:30 pm. Everyone is welcome.
- Wilson Fellowship meets again this Wednesday 7.30 Pm at the Zoethout's place. We will study lesson 4 from the Gospel of John. Please read John 4: 1 – 54. All welcome.
- Nominations for Elder: the congregation is requested to consider prayerfully those who are suitably gifted to serve as elders within this congregation, and to forward the nominations for two elders to a session member prior to our next Session meeting, which will be held on October 28th.

- Gems will meet this coming Friday 7 Pm at the Gosnells church. Supper: Violic,

Australind Youth Event

Hi all! It's not too late to make some plans to come down south for what we hope and pray will be great time of fellowship for the youth of our Churches and anyone else!

Whether you arrive on the Saturday or on the Sunday we hope you'll be able to make it one way or the other.

Again, here is our plan for an exciting two days. From 4pm onwards people can arrive at the Church on the Saturday, before heading to Macca's for some tucker, then heading to the Vink's for a bonfire, before heading back to base to recharge the batteries.

Then in the morning we supply brekky, before cleaning up and getting ready for the youth service at 9:30am, then some morning tea followed by lunch, an early arvo service at about 1:30pm, followed by a game of soccer and some social time. So lots to look forward to.

Please bring your own sleeping gear (girls sleeping in Council room & boys in Sunday school) including your own mattress, some money for macca's and some marshmallows or any other snacks to share around the bonfire. For more information please contact Pastor Craig van Echten (craigvanechten@hotmail.com) or Shanna de Ridder (ifloss2@hotmail.com).

Look forward to seeing you!

MISSION WORK:

IS GOD CALLING YOU?

The CRCA has a very effective mission base, in Honiara, Solomon Islands. This is about three hours' flight from Brisbane.

We are seeking a DIRECTOR, who can help and inspire the multi-faceted work and witness of the mission- in education and training, in diaconal support, in practical short term missions, in health etc.

Rev. Kevin Rietveld established this work, Dr Simon Burggraaf continued and expanded the program

But now we need a new Director, to maintain and supervise this vibrant operation. His love for the Lord will be matched with some management skills. The position becomes vacant in early 2015

And later in 2015, we'll need another keen missionary!

Jair Duinkerke will retire from the mission after nearly six years of hard but fulfilling and rewarding Kingdom work. He's called our DEED MISSIONARY, and works closely with our Word Missionary, Rev. Eric Maefonea.

His tasks include managing the facilities and equipment at the SWIM base, security, managing the ground staff, the vehicles, the power supplies etc. He's also enjoyed the challenges of Bible teaching, working with prisoners in the local gaols, organising the preparations for those short term mission teams from Australia and New Zealand, supervising the provision of a hundred water tanks to poor and remote villages etc

Our Deed Missionary too, needs a deep love for the Lord, his Word, his church and his people, and a practical, problem solving mind.

SWIM has established a great school- the Bethesda Disability Training and Support Centre, where up to a dozen adults with a physical disability live in for a twenty week training course. They have health, hygiene and faith training, occupational training in horticulture, chicken management, sewing, carpentry and leadership. They graduate with great new skills and confidence, and trust in Jesus!

With an operation of a dozen staff, various teaching and accommodation facilities, recreation places, extensive gardens, offices etc there's a good management team of an education principal, a therapy manager, a base manager and....the school really needs a BURSAR with some bookkeeping or accountancy experience.

Could you see yourself in one of these tasks? Have you been asking yourself, now that I've retired early, how can I use the skills the Lord has given me in more direct service for him? Or, now that I've finished my training, or apprenticeship, could I serve Jesus overseas for a few years?

Could you be hearing the call of the Lord to exercise the gifts of leadership or service that others have noticed in you, or commented about?

Could I be a director/ manager, a practical support deed worker, a school bursar? With God's help?

The Chairman of the CRCA SOLOMON ISLANDS MISSION WORKGROUP would love to hear from you!

For a job description, conditions and other information, please contact: Peter van der Schoor (phone 03 6229 3331) or email vdschoor@internode.on. Net

Introducing CRCA Yearbook 2014/2015

Another eventful year of life in the CRCA has come and gone, and by the time this new yearbook arrives on your desk it will only be a matter of months until the CRCA again meets in Synod – this time on the other side of the continent (D.v) in Perth.

It's always of interest to note the passing of those who have served the denomination faithfully and well. From the U.S. came news of the home-call of Dr George Van Groningen – one time pastor of the Geelong Reformed Church and lecturer in Old Testament at the Reformed Theological College (RTC). George and his wife Harriet were called by the Christian Reformed Church of North America (CRCNA) to help out our fledgling denomination back in the late 1950s. George took up lecturing at the RTC in 1961 but the family eventually returned to the US in 1970. Dr. Van Groningen died at the ripe old age of 93.

The Van Groningen's time with us was significant for another reason too. They introduced our churches to the youth programs Cadets and Calvinettes (now GEMS). These programs were developed in the CRCNA and introduced first in the Geelong congregation. It is significant that this year Cadets and GEMS are celebrating their fiftieth anniversary. While fewer churches now run these programs than was the case a decade or two ago it is nevertheless encouraging to see that they are still a vibrant part of church life for many of our congregations. Only eternity will reveal the impact that these programs have had – not only for encouraging covenant children but also for introducing non-churched young people to the Lord Jesus Christ.

On the same day as the death of Dr Van Groningen another faithful servant of the Lord, Rev. Martin Geluk, was also called out of this life to be with his Lord and Saviour. Martin served our churches in three states. In recent years he battled the ravages of motor neuron disease. In this context we should also mention the passing of a pastor's widow: Anne Hoving, wife of the late Rev. Harry Hoving. We thank the Lord for the contribution these folk made to the life of our churches.

There have, of course, also been other changes in the ranks of ministers. Rev. Bob Murray from St Marys (NSW) retired and Rev. Ron Van Leerdam was released from Penguin (Tas) while Rev. Ray Rus resigned as our denominational children's worker and Rev. Robbie Moningka returned to Indonesia to serve as director of Scripture Union there. On the other side of Introducing CRCA

Yearbook the ledger it was good to see Rev. Ian Daw ordained to the Leongatha (Vic) congregation, the Rev. Stephen Jonker at Hawkesbury (NSW) and the Rev. Yohan Candawasa took over as pastor of the Indonesian congregation in Sydney. RTC lecturer, Dr. Martin Williams was also accepted as a minister in special service. At present three vicars have concluded their training and are eligible for call – which makes for a healthy situation in the churches as we presently have few vacant pulpits.

The financial position of the denomination has continued to improve. The various committees and workgroups have been cutting back on expenditure where possible. The Business and Finance Committee is confident that we will go into next year's Synod with a much healthier financial situation. It's always gratifying to see how our people rise to the challenge when presented with special needs. That was obvious again too after the recent floods in the Solomon Islands. The Solomon Islands workgroup commented: (We) had a very generous response to the FLOOD APPEAL. Praise God! Both the SWIM base and the Bethesda Disability Training School could be repaired and restored and restocked, and immediate relief aid could be extended in the name of Jesus to many neighbours and local communities. Our SWIM missionaries are now, in cooperation with World Vision, providing water tanks to villages where the creeks and rivers are unsafe. About 40 villages have been helped so far, and we have funds for about another 40.

Meanwhile the quarterly e-periodical, Catalyst, has certainly established its place in our churches as a good overview of what is happening in the denomination and as a stimulus to church growth. In that context it's good to hear that although our overall membership figures have again declined nevertheless some new churches are being planted such as the Hub Church (by South Barwon); Wilson Christian Church (by Willetton) and Hope Community Church (by Gateway). We commend these efforts to your prayers.

Finally it's good to see that things are happening with respect to preparations for Synod 2015 with various committees already putting out preliminary reports and as I write at least one Classis has already scheduled the appointment of voting for delegates on its next agenda. May Synod 2015 serve for the glory of God and the wellbeing of the churches.

MERF

Last week I received this update from MERF... "Praise God for Syrians and Iraqis coming to faith in Christ through their sufferings and for the opportunity to encourage them through MERF gospel broadcasts and diaconal aid. Tens of thousands have fled to Lebanon. Several churches report unusually large numbers of Muslim families attending their services. One pastor reports the congregation is now many times the size it was last year, and they have run out of space." Please continue to pray for this ministry as they distribute aid and bring the Gospel via radio broadcast.

The Dutch solution

To nursing homes

It's official. Like Belgium, The Netherlands has completely lost any sense of respect for the law and has leapt, lemming-like, off the moral cliff. Dutch news is reporting on the euthanasia death of an elderly woman who sought euthanasia because she did not want to live in a nursing home.

The report said that she visited a "special clinic set up to help people whose doctors do not support euthanasia". This incident sparked the second reprimand of the "Life Clinic" in the last four months. In the previous case the same clinic euthanased a woman with identified psychiatric problems without enough consultations with the woman. In this current case, according to the Trouw newspaper, the euthanasia monitoring committee concluded that "The doctor has based his decision solely on the fact that the patient was in a nursing home."

Earlier this year, Dutch Professor Theo Boer, an early supporter of Dutch euthanasia law, changed his mind. He was most critical of the "Life-Clinic" saying "Doctors of the End of Life Clinic have only two options: administer life ending drugs or send the patient away." How is this about genuine choice?

The Dutch mobile euthanasia teams whose aim is also to provide euthanasia in situations where the family doctor refuses was roundly criticised by Prof Boer:

On average these physicians see a patient three times before administering drugs to end their life. Hundreds of cases were conducted to end their life. Hundreds of cases were conducted by the End of life Clinic. The NVVE [ie, the Dutch Association for the Termination of Life on Request] shows no signs of being satisfied even with these developments. They will not rest until a lethal pill is made available to anyone over 70 years who wishes to die. Some slopes truly are slippery.

From the Dutch news report:

The latest case involves a woman in her 80s 'who had become partially paralysed since a stroke. Twenty years previously she had written a statement saying she did not want to live permanently in a nursing home. She reconfirmed that position with her doctor 18 months ago. In order to qualify for euthanasia in the Netherlands, the patient must be "suffering unbearably".

Although this was not the case, the clinic's doctors decided to perform the euthanasia because this is what the woman wanted. An independent doctor did assess the woman as suffering unbearably, based on gestures and her repeated use of the words "kan niet", (translate: "can not")

Dutch News reports that this is the first time that such a case has been reported to the authorities and they are now considering prosecution. The "Life-clinicss" have eutnased over 250 Dutch citizens in just over two Years.

The Trouw report adds that the referral to the "Life-Clinic" occurred because the nursing home "refused to comment on the euthanasia request of her children". The woman had apparently indicated some 20 years previously in an advance directive that she did not want to live permanently in a nursing home, a claim that she apparently repeated in recent days. It is difficult to tell whether her children were reinforcing her settled view or pushing the case for euthanasia themselves.

Euthanasia is supposed to be available to Dutch citizens who are "suffering unbearably"-an entirely subjective standard that clearly now extends to not being happy about where you want to live! Herein madness lies!

Paul Russell is Executive Director of HOPE: preventing euthanasia & assisted suicide and is Vice Chair of the Euthanasia Prevention Coalition international. This article first appeared in his blog at <http://lloeuthanasia.org.au/and> is republished with his permission.

TO WHOM DOES THE LAND OF ISRAEL BELONG??

An Israeli Sense of Humour at United Nations set the record straight.

An ingenious example of speech and politics occurred recently in the United Nations Assembly and made the world community smile.

A representative from Israel began: "Before beginning my talk I want to tell you something about Moses: When he struck the rock and it brought forth water, he thought, "What a good opportunity to have a bath!"

Moses removed his clothes, put them aside on the rock and entered the water. When he got out and wanted to dress, his clothes had vanished. A Palestinian had stolen them!

The Palestinian representative at the UN jumped up furiously and shouted, "What are you talking about? The Palestinians weren't there then."

The Israeli representative smiled and said, "And now that we have made that clear, I will begin my speech."
